

DESTINATIONS OF THE WORLD news

Essential travel intelligence

June 2023

ARTFUL ENDEAVOURS
Sweden's head-turning art scene

LIVE EXTRAORDINARY
21 days, 10 destinations, seven continents and one private jet

A TICKET TO...

NEW YORK'S NATURAL LIVING
A PRIVATE ISLAND IN BOTSWANA
THE CREATIVE SIDE OF YOSEMITE
GARDEN PARTIES IN SCOTLAND
SANTORINI'S SERENITY

SUMMER ESCAPES ISLANDS

FROM PARTY VIBES TO PEACE AND PRIVACY IN PARADISE
MALDIVES + MAURITIUS + SEYCHELLES

EXCLUSIVE TIMEPIECES ◆ EXQUISITE JEWELS ◆ UNIQUE ESCAPES ◆ LUXURY CARS

ZANNIER RECREATES PROVENÇAL CHARM ON ÎLE DE BENDOR

CREATORS OF EXCEPTIONAL, ONE-OF-A-KIND HOSPITALITY PROJECTS, Zannier Hotels is taking on the redesign of iconic French private island Île de Bendor, facing the city of Bandol in Provence. Over the next three years, Île de Bendor will undergo a complete transformation once again becoming a buzzing social hub in the bay of Bandol, embodying the playful spirit of the French Riviera. Emerging as a Provençal-style village and convivial gathering space rooted in the island's old-world glamour and inimitable spirit, the island will be home to numerous restaurants, bars and social spaces. Zannier Hotels is partnering with Société Paul Ricard to modernise the island and build on its founder's legacy, Paul Ricard. Overlooking the Mediterranean Sea, Zannier Hotels Bendor will be a boutique hotel with 93 rooms composed of several categories spread across different buildings with their own unique atmosphere. It will feature a range of amenities, including a wellness centre, beach club, diving centre, an exciting array of food and beverage hot-spots, various different leisure facilities and much more. The launch, set for 2026, is an exciting next chapter for Zannier Hotels, as it will manage and operate the island destination from start to finish. www.zannierhotels.com

ALL ABOARD THE DIOR SPA

SINCE BELMOND TOOK OVER THE REINS IN 2005, the Royal Scotsman has been revered for its lavish offering. Whizzing through the Scottish Highlands, weaving between mountains, castles and bridges, the legendary train exudes untold glamour. The summer 2023 season promises to be the most sophisticated so far, as Belmond partners with Dior for an onboard Dior Spa Royal Scotsman. Housed in one of the train's plush carriages, the spa will feature two lacquered treatment rooms, restyled with Dior's iconic burgundy toile de Jouy motif. Guests will be able to immerse themselves in a curated programme of treatments as the train moves through Scotland's awe-inspiring valleys. Bringing the savoir-faire of two leading luxury brands together, Dior Spa Royal Scotsman will provide guests with the ultimate beauty experience to complement their outdoor wellness activities – such as wild swimming, hiking and farm-to-table dining – holistically enhancing their overall wellbeing. The unveiling of the spa coincides perfectly with the newly launched themed journeys aboard the train. Running from 30 June to 3 July 2023, the new Highland Survival Adventure itinerary is for adrenaline-seekers featuring outdoor challenges in some of the most secluded locations in the Western Highlands. Bon vivants are invited to enjoy a getaway with Scotland's most celebrated culinary star, Chef Tom Kitchin. From September 4 to 6, 2023, the Michelin-starred chef will host A Taste of Scotland, a gastronomic, two-night journey through the Scottish Highlands. www.belmond.com

BREAKFAST WITH PICASSO AT LE BRISTOL

TO MARK THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF PABLO PICASSO'S DEATH, Le Bristol Paris and Opera Gallery are paying a creative tribute to the legendary artist by inviting guests to enjoy 'Breakfast with Picasso' in one of the Palace hotel's Deluxe Junior Suites. Le Bristol Paris' 'Breakfast with Picasso' offer includes a one-night stay in a Deluxe Junior Suite and a breakfast created for the occasion by Chef Eric Frechon, served in-suite the next morning, allowing guests to experience an original Picasso masterpiece up close and personal in complete privacy with a glass of chilled champagne. The work chosen for this exclusive viewing is Pablo Picasso's 1931 oil painting, Maison à Juan-Les-Pins (La Villa Chêne Roc). It was created during a summer holiday spent in Juan-Les-Pins on the French Riviera. This private viewing holds special significance for Oetker Collection because Pablo Picasso was a regular guest at Hotel du Cap-Eden-Roc, where he produced 23 paintings and 44 drawings. www.oetkercollection.com

THIS SUMMER CYPRUS' MOST-LOVED FAMILY-RUN LUXURY HOTEL GROUP, Thanos Hotels & Resorts will welcome guests to its new boutique hotel brand, Amyth Hotel. Expanding the group's presence outside Cyprus, the first Amyth Hotel will be located in Mykonos. Perched on a peaceful hilltop at the edge of the picturesque village of Agios Stefanos, Amyth Mykonos is an all-suite boutique property, featuring 17 one-bedroom suites. Perfectly located a short drive from Mykonos Town it is the ideal setting for guests seeking seclusion, whilst remaining close to the buzz of the stylish island. Created in collaboration with GNB Architects, a sleek Aegean-inspired design captures the unique spirit and beauty of the island. Calming earth-toned interiors, Mykonian stone walls, handcrafted wooden furnishings and natural decorations honour the Cycladic heritage and surrounding landscape. Suites range from luxurious garden suites with private terraces to sea-view suites with private pools, jetted hot-tubs and panoramic ocean views. The hotel's elegant swimming pool overlooks the Aegean Sea, alongside an outdoor gym. There is also a calming spa treatment room, where guests can benefit from 10 different types of massages.

Personal training, private yoga and care from local wellness experts are also available on demand for guests looking for a more wellbeing-focused getaway. The onsite Amyth Kouzina restaurant will feature an all-day menu bursting with the authentic flavours of the Mediterranean, serving fresh local seafood and a range of gluten-free, vegan and vegetarian options. www.thanoshotels.com